

SFUSIMON FRASER
UNIVERSITYCouncil of Yukon
First Nations

Simon Fraser University and Yukon Native Language Centre

First Nation Language Proficiency (FNLCP) Programs - Fall 2019

Certificate of First Nation Language Proficiency

For students who wish to acquire conversational and literacy skills in a First Nations language, to teach this language in schools, or to enhance their language for cultural reasons or professional objectives. All courses are taught with the expertise of fluent speakers of the language and/or are team taught by a linguist and a fluent speaker or elder.

FNLG 133 – Introduction to First Nations Language I (3)

FNLG 134 – Introduction to First Nations Language II (3)

FNLG 130 – Practical Phonetics for First Nations Languages (3)

FNLG 335 – Topics in First Nations Language I (3) – Language Revitalization

FNLG 435 – Topics in a First Nations Language II (3) – Language Learning and Recordings

FNLG 433 – Mentor-Apprentice Learning I (3)*

FNLG 434 – Mentor-Apprentice Learning II (3)*

Diploma of First Nation Language Proficiency

For students who wish to acquire high intermediate to advanced oral proficiency in a First Nations language, to revitalize their languages in their communities by contributing to restore intergenerational transmission through institutional and family-oriented use of the language, to teach this language in schools or to adult learners, and to develop resources for First Nations Language learners at all levels.

FNLG 433 – Mentor-Apprentice Learning I (3)*

FNLG 434 – Mentor-Apprentice Learning II (3)*

FNLG 433 and FNLG 434 (Mentor Apprentice courses) require you to have a fluent speaker to work with.*

Registration begins on July 29, 2019

Enrollment forms will be posted on the YNLC website.

All courses run from 8:30am to 4:30pm. See registration forms for course dates.

For further information, please phone (867) 668-8820 or e-mail info@ynlc.ca.

For program descriptions please visit:

<https://www.sfu.ca/students/calendar/2019/spring/programs/first-nations-language-proficiency/certificate.html>

or

<https://www.sfu.ca/students/calendar/2019/spring/programs/first-nations-language-proficiency/diploma.html>

The certificate and diploma can be completed on a full or part-time basis. Courses are available to be offered in cooperation with local First Nations communities and language authorities. Courses in other locations and/or in other languages can be offered at the request of the First Nation communities.